SIHO President and CEO Succession

October 24, 2017 – After nearly 20 years as President and CEO of SIHO Insurance Services, Dave Barker will retire in January, 2018. Mr. Barker has led the company in an exemplary manner. During his tenure, SIHO more than doubled its membership, overhauled its technology infrastructure and established itself as an important employer and corporate citizen throughout Indiana.

At a recent Board meeting, SIHO's Board of Directors selected John Sadtler to succeed Mr. Barker as President and CEO of the company. Mr. Sadtler has already assumed all oversight responsibilities for the Columbus, Indiana-based company and will work with Mr. Barker to transition key relationships and other functions between now and January.

With more than 25 years in the healthcare industry, Mr. Sadtler brings tremendous experience to the role. He rejoined SIHO's senior leadership team in 2014 as Vice President of Strategy, Business Development and Product Innovation. John's previous experience includes senior executive positions at Humana and United Healthcare. Mr. Sadtler and his team will build on SIHO's strong foundation and continue to enhance the customer experience while delivering quality, cost-effective solutions for its employer clients.

About SIHO:

SIHO Insurance Services, headquartered in Columbus, Indiana, was established in 1987 through the cooperative efforts of local physicians, hospitals, and employers who were concerned about the rising cost of health care. One of the fastest growing Health Plan Administrators in the Midwest, SIHO strives to raise the standard of health care and the quality of life in its communities.

As a leader in innovative health benefit solutions for businesses of all sizes, SIHO offers a wide range of products and services including comprehensive third-party administration, wellness programs, population health management, health system and network development, COBRA administration and flexible spending plan administration. SIHO's promise to its customers is very simple: provide them with the sophistication of a national carrier while keeping the focus, flexibility and cost effectiveness of a local partner.
